The clothing and equipage division

The clothing and equipage division is now arranging to have all gloves in process of production made interchangeable. The interchangeable glove is a five-finger knitted wool glove, with seams so "fulled" or "fluffed" as to be invisible. These U. S. Naval Reserve
Mark Herbert Comgloves are not shaped to fit snug on the paim or full on the back of the hand, but are knitted flat so that the paim and back are identical. The thumb is fitted into both the ob-verse and reverse sides of the glove Hills, N. Y.

A flag was presented to the 375th
Regiment, U. S. A., by Dr. Jose C.
Barbosa, at San Juan. P. R., on gloves from one hand to the other to equalize the wear on both sides and triotic speech in presenting the flag and it was accepted on behalf of the regiment by Col. Frank C. Wood, its commanding officer. exact appearance of the glove may be obtained by observing the shape of the open hand presed on a flat sur-face with fingers slightly separated.
